COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

Loma Linda Amphitheater, Loma Linda, California

Sunday, May the thirty-first

Nineteen hundred and forty-two

Six o'clock

America, the Beautiful

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for pilgrim feet,
Whose stern, impassioned stress
A thorough-fare for freedom beat,
Across the wilderness!
America! America!
God mend thine ev'ry flaw,
Conform thy soul in self-control,
Thy liberty in law!

O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

—Katherine Lee Bates

The success of an outdoor exercise depends, in a large measure, upon the thoughtful cooperation of the audience. The recessional march is a beautiful and significant part of the ceremony. Kindly remain standing in your place until the conclusion of the exercise.
