LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY

Conferring of Degrees

SCHOOL OF DENTISTRY CLASS OF 1976

SUNDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 19, 1976

NINE O'CLOCK, THE UNIVERSITY CHURCH

C. CREE SANDEFUR, president of the Pacific Union Conference of Seventh-day Adventists, is vice chairman of the Board of Trustees of Loma Linda University.

Since his graduation from Union College in 1938, he has lent his talents to the service of the church as pastor; director of Conference and Union Missionary Volunteer Departments; and president of the Hawaiian Mission, the Southern California Conference, and the Columbia and Pacific Unions.

THE MACE. Traditionally the ceremonial mace represents the authority vested in the highest officer of a governing body. In an educational institution, the authority symbolized by the mace derives from respect for the authority of knowledge and for the rights and value of the individual. Thus, the leader of an academic community assumes the obligation and challenge to ensure for its members a climate conducive to growth in knowledge and grace.

The construction of the ceremonial mace of Loma Linda University evokes further ideas. Its two metals, bronze and aluminum, suggest the value of lessons both ancient and contemporary. Rather than lying prone, an instrument to be wielded, this mace stands upright in celebration of the free human spirit. Its open construction implies free exposure to questions, ideas, and conflict. The eight vertical supporting elements (at three points bound together as for strength and stability in unity) uphold a graceful oval that points outward to the universe, the province of inquiry.

Within the oval, the University seal appears to float unfettered. The caduceus on the left represents all fields of the healing arts and sciences. The broken sword on the right implies mercy in the sense of selflessness and restraint from acts and attitudes of self-aggrandizement and destructiveness. The open book suggests God the Word as the basis for all truth. The lighted torch symbolizes the illuminating power of knowledge and the University's central purpose of forwarding and perpetuating good through the enlightened, searching, caring mind and conscience of the individual.

THE PLEDGE

I solemnly promise to live my life in the service of humanity.

I will hold in gratitude my school,
its teachings, and the inspiration of my teachers and classmates.

I will do all in my power to uphold and promote the honor and dignity of my profession; I will strive to conduct myself so that I may merit the respect and confidence of my colleagues.

I will accept my civic responsibility.

I will abstain from greed and will practice the charity I owe my fellow men; I will show the same solicitude toward my patient that I would have shown toward me.

I will make honesty my goal, in service, in teaching, in seeking knowledge.

These things I pledge to do, freely and upon my honor.
