LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY

Summer Conferring of Degrees

Thursday evening, August 30, 1979

Eight o'clock, The University Church

Loma Linda, California

CLYDE ORA FRANZ

Secretary, General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Elder Franz has lent his talents to the service of the church as secretary-treasurer of three conferences (Alabama-Mississippi, Kentucky-Tennessee, and Iowa) and two unions (British West Indies and Antillian), president of Antillian Union, secretary of the Inter-American Division, treasurer of the Inter-American Division, and associate secretary of the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Elder Franz now serves in an advisory capacity to the geographical divisions of the church. He is also responsible for the official records of the General Conference Committee and is chairman of the Committee on Mission Appointees.

THE MACE. Traditionally the ceremonial mace represents the authority vested in the highest officer of a governing body. In an educational institution, the authority symbolized by the mace derives from respect for the authority of knowledge and for the rights and value of the individual. Thus, the leader of an academic community assumes the obligation and challenge to ensure for its members a climate conducive to growth in knowledge and grace.

The construction of the ceremonial mace of Loma Linda University evokes further ideas. Its two metals, bronze and aluminum, suggest the value of lessons both ancient and contemporary. Rather than lying prone, an instrument to be wielded, this mace stands upright in celebration of the free human spirit. Its open construction implies free exposure to questions, ideas, and conflict. The eight vertical supporting elements (at three points bound together as for strength and stability in unity) uphold a graceful oval that points outward to the universe, the province of inquiry.

Within the oval, the University seal appears to float unfettered. The caduceus on the left represents all fields of the healing arts and sciences. The broken sword on the right implies mercy in the sense of selflessness and restraint from acts and attitudes of self-aggrandizement and destructiveness. The open book suggests God the Word as the basis for all truth. The lighted torch symbolizes the illuminating power of knowledge and the University's central purpose of forwarding and perpetuating good through the enlightened, searching, caring mind and conscience of the individual.
